Accommodation Note for the VANCOUVER FOLK SONG SOCIETY RETREAT 2022
Friday, Sept. 30th to Sunday, Oct. 2nd

In consideration for those wishing to spend the full weekend at the Retreat who are wary of sharing a room or cabin overnight with others due to the ongoing Covid risk, Camp Alexandra has given permission this year for our attendees to bring personal tents and set them up within the grounds of the Camp for Friday and Saturday nights. Others may choose to sleep at home, if close enough, or arrange their own accommodation nearby.

Because the use of tents or offsite accommodation does not reduce our costs for full-weekend attendees, and because the number of full-weekend attendees is limited by our contract with the Camp to no more than the total number of beds available, folks choosing to bring a tent or stay offsite are required to pay the same as those who stay in a room or cabin onsite (with the same choice of rates, depending on member vs. non-member, adult vs. youth, upper vs. lower bunk, early-bird discount, etc.), and may choose to be assigned a bed even if they don't expect to use it. Note the lowest rate for adults is the members' upper-bunk rate of $140.

If you do plan to bring a tent or stay offsite, please mention that in the "Accommodation requests" section at the top of page 2 of your registration form, following the "Other" tick box. Please also mention if you wish to be assigned a bed as well. If you have already submitted your registration form, you may email that information to registrar@vfss.ca.

The registration form, in both Microsoft Word and PDF formats, is attached below.
